Club News and Other Information

Last Club Meeting

Saturday, March 19th - We had a good club meeting and flying session at the Can Do Ranch. April meeting canceled due to weather.

Next Club Meeting

Meeting will be this coming Saturday, May 21st, 10 a.m. at the Can Do Ranch. Watch your email in case weather necessitates a change.

Local Flying

April 20 - John Thompson reports – Again, we're faced with standing water on the circle, though the weather should be better.

We also have several members unable to fly locally because some will be at the Portland contest.

April 30 - John Thompson reports - Heavy rains this week have once again put the Can Do Ranch underwater, and once again the field will not be usable for Oregon Flying Fun No. 4, which we had rescheduled for this coming Saturday.

We have made the unhappy decision to cancel Oregon Flying Fun No. 4 for this year.

Misc INFO

May 12 - John Thompson reports - Unfortunately, the Can Do Ranch flying circle is still underwater.

That means, no local flying this coming weekend.

Out of town Flying

May 18 - John Thompson reports - Our friends in Roseburg have invited us to join them. They are featuring 1/2-A planes this Saturday, but any kind of CL planes are welcome.

Out of town Event

April 22 - Gene Pape - Portland 80 MPH winner.

I came across the Firefly plans on Outerzone. Outerzone credits Rich Lopez as the designer and Rich mentions Ed Birdant as the instigator of the design.

Letter to the editor from Neill McRae - Mentioned the AeroFred website before.

The site receives and republishes model aircraft (and boat) plans in all categories and makes them available for free download. It's based in Portugal but operated by a Brit. Take a look. AeroFred.com
