Zoot Ranch Fun Fly - August 23 – Mehama, Ore. - Flying Lines photos

Zoot Ranch Fun Fly is a celebration of CL fun - Mehama, Ore., Aug. 23, 2019

See full report at: <http://flyinglines.org/zootranch.19.html>

The approximately annual Zoot Ranch Fun Fly returned to the backyard of Mike and Laura Hazel on a perfect day for flying and feasting. Sunshine, perfect temperature, almost no wind made for a long, leisurely day of casual flying and socializing. Flying began at 10 a.m. and was still going on late in the afternoon.

Twenty-three fliers and family members attended, enough to keep the circle busy all day. They all brought with them enough food to feed everyone several times over. Mike and Laura provided the hot dogs and hamburgers, and everyone else brought side dishes and desserts -- lots of desserts!

Attending were: Craig and Laury Bartlett; Floyd and Phyllis Carter; Mike Denlis; Don and Margaret Dotter; Mike and Laura Hazel; John, Donna and Lynnette Lickley; Steve Lindstedt; Robin and Matt Mason; Dave Royer and Alice Cotton-Royer; Mark Schluter; Dave and Peggy Shrum, John Thompson; and Gary and Peggy Weems.

Mike Denlis is an enthusiast for 1950s vintage ready-to fly planes. This is a Cox TD-4 that Mike restored, replacing the plastic wing with a built-up version. It stunts!

Mike Denlis flies his vintage Wen-Mac powered AMF Stunt Trainer.
