

Don Boleski
Second Place Senior Combat
Winner of the prestigious Sportsmanship Award
1951 Plymouth Internats

ST. JOSEPH YOUTH HONORED . . . More than 1,600 persons looked on as Don Boleski, 20 years old, 2901 Sylvanie street, was presented the sportsmanship trophy at a banquet concluding Plymouth's Fifth Annual International Model Plane contest at Detroit, Mich. Edward Meyers, Dodge official from Glenellyn, Ill., is shown making presentation. Boleski was selected for the coveted honor from a field of more than 500 contestants representing all parts of the United States and Canada.

Editor's Note: Don, who is from Wichita, Kansas, has more photos and newspaper articles he plans to send us so we may be expanding this bio real soon.