PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

RICHARD ENTWHISTLE

To all my fellow Northwest Fireballs, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

With Don Curry taking the helm at our next meeting, this will be my last President's Message. I've enjoyed being President for the past three years, as well as my continuing association with a cohesive control-line flying group. I believe our club has made some real progress during this time; our treasury is substantial and our membership is active. In particular, the Monday-Wednesday-Friday group I fly with has maintained a strong presence at Delta Park and I look forward to many more days of the same.

Our December meeting, again at Doug and Kathy Powers' house, was our sole official gathering for the month. Please see Jerry Olson's minutes, later in this newsletter, for details.

At the meeting, we finished planning for the January 1st Fun Fly and are looking forward to good food and, for the first time in several years, raffle prizes. The poster for this and the other Fun Fly events is later in this newsletter.

Also at the meeting, we started planning for the Jim Walker Memorial Spring Tune-Up, the club-sponsored event that kicks off the 2012 competition year. I do have a couple of updates from later in the month: Mike Hazel has agreed to again act as the director for speed events (he'd like to split "speed" into two record-ratio categories this year, AMA-rule and Northwest-rule). Also, Joe Just thanks everyone for offering him the opportunity to again be event director for navy carrier, but he has promised himself he'd take the year off (from directing); Mark Hansen will be director for that event. Thanks to all who volunteered to get this contest rolling.

Included with this newsletter is a current copy of the club's roster. As a reminder, we agreed, several months back, not to distribute private club information (rosters, financial reports, minutes, etc.) outside the club. In support of this, we are preparing a "for the public" copy of the

Our next club event will be the Fun Fly at Delta Park on January 1st, followed by the regular monthly meeting on January 8th and the winter banquet later in January (or early February). A calendar listing events for the next several months is included in this newsletter (all to be confirmed at future meetings, of course).

I urge all members to throw their support behind the new club officers and to continue control-line flying at Delta Park. Weather permitting, as always, I'll be there Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays!

DUES NOTICE

$20 membership dues to The Northwest Fireballs for flying-year 2012 are now payable.

Thanks to all who have already paid.

For those who have yet to pay, a check made to The Northwest Fireballs

We have an event-filled year planned. Don't let it happen without you!

(this public copy contains only a summary, not the full meeting minutes)

Fourteen members attended the meeting; the agenda was accepted and the meeting minutes and treasurer's report for the previous month were read and approved.

Continuing and New Business

Discussion continued on our mid-winter banquet. The majority of members prefer a menu-based rather than a buffet-based venue for this year's event, with a late January or early February date. Door prizes will again be offered.

The amendment proposed last month, to consolidate in November the review of next year's club dues with the budget review for the next year, passed. Various other membership-related bylaw amendments were proposed, to be voted at the January meeting.

Planning continued for the January 1st Fun Fly, to be sponsored by the Northwest Fireballs at Delta Park. Food and raffle prizes will be offered for those attending (food for all, one raffle ticket awarded for each flight).

Planning started on the Jim Walker Memorial Spring Tune-Up Contest. The contest will be held the third weekend in April (April 20th, 21st and 22nd). Leo Mehl volunteered to act as Contest Director.
